

Holy Trinity Roman Catholic Parish

Nov. 10, 2024
32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

*Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.
Amen.*

Welcome to Holy Trinity!

As Catholic Christians we seek to proclaim, celebrate, and live our faith joyfully and to express our love for Christ and each other.

If you are a visitor or are new to Regina or to our parish, we welcome you and hope you have a positive experience in your worship with us. Check our website for a helpful introduction to Holy Trinity and its various ministries and services. Please feel free to contact us with questions or comments. We look forward to meeting you!

To register in the parish, update your information, or request donation envelopes, pick up a form in the Gathering area (bulletin board) or print a copy from our website, call the parish office or drop in during office hours, www.holytrinityregina.ca.

ON DEMAND.St. Ephrem the Syrian | Catholic Saints

An Eastern Father of the early Church, St. Ephrem the Syrian was arguably the most important saint and theological writer for the Syriac-speaking churches. He did not write many treatises or letters but devoted himself to writing hymns to God. These hymns, however, contain a wealth of knowledge and teaching that elegantly weave together images from the Old and New Testaments.

2024 Bible Study at Holy Trinity—“LECTIO – EUCHARIST” with Dr. Brant Pitre. Pick the time that suits your schedule. The study has started but it is not too late to join and catch up on Formed:

Tuesday Evenings – 7:30 pm, 5 sessions started Oct. 29

Wednesday Mornings – 9:15 am, 5 sessions started Oct. 30

Acclaimed author and teacher Dr. Brant Pitre digs down to the biblical roots of the Eucharist, through its foreshadowing in the miraculous events of the Old Testament, the Gospels, and Apostolic teaching. "The Lamb of God," "The Bread of Life," "The Body and the Blood of Christ"... are phrases from the Mass. But do we understand what they mean in the greater and deeper context of Scripture and Church teaching?

We'll discover firsthand how Christ's Body and Blood are an integral and wondrous part of God's plan for our salvation.

December 6 Annual Christmas Potluck Doors open 5:30 pm; Supper begins at 6 pm. Everyone welcome. Bring a friend or spouse. Presentation by Gail Reles on Lay Ministry program. (No general meeting in January).

The staff at Rooted Connections would like to THANK the parishioners of Holy Trinity for their very generous gifts of baby clothing, blankets, diapers, etc as well as the monetary donations which totalled $515. to the Families First Program. They were most grateful for your assistance to families in need of help with a new arrival. Thank-you also from the Holy Trinity CWL for your participation in this year's Spiritual Adoption Program and for all of your baby gifts.

A new Spiritual Adoption Program will start begin in the New Year.

Children's Liturgy - program is in need of leaders for all Mass times. If you would like to see consistent children's liturgy available for our children, please prayerfully consider becoming a leader. Training and resources will be provided. Contact the office if interested.

Communion to Shut-ins. If you, or someone in your family would like communion brought to a care home or own home in our parish, contact the Holy Trinity office (306) 543-3838.

Those in hospital should contact the Chaplain (contact info page 4)

Communion Ministry to the Homebound—looking for one or two parishioners to take communion to a few residents of a care home in our area. Contact the office. Since this is a ministry to a vulnerable group, a criminal record check will be needed (cost is reimbursed by parish).

Vatican II and Synodality—Public lecture: Wednesday, November 27 at 7:00 pm at Campion College. All are welcome!

Dr. Catherine Clifford is a Canadian laywoman appointed as a delegate to the XVI Assembly of the Synod of Bishops. She is a professor of theology and director of the Centre for Vatican II and 21st Century Catholicism at the Université Saint Paul in Ottawa. A specialist in ecumenism and ecclesiology (the theology of church), Dr. Clifford has over two decades of experience as a member of Anglican-Roman Catholic and other ecumenical dialogues.

Dr. Clifford will be visiting Regina soon after returning from the Synod. She will be speaking on how a renewed attention to the ancient practice of synodality is giving a renewed attention to the teaching of the Second Vatican Council. In addition to a public lecture, she will also be speaking with pastoral staff and visiting classes at Campion College.

For further information about any of these plans, contact Nick Jesson, Archdiocesan Synod Coordinator, njesson@archregina.sk.ca

Camp Monahan's Annual Christmas Dinner, Dec. 7, Holy Child—Enjoy an evening out with great food, music and friends at Camp Monahan's Annual Christmas Dinner, sponsored by Holy Child Knights of Columbus. Celebration of Canadian Freedom and Cultural Diversity, Nov. 10 from 2-6 pm, Our Lady of Peace Parish. Short Remembrance Day Service, entertainment, a Meal of Ethnic foods, 50/50 draw and door prizes. Entrance by donation with part of the proceeds going to the Royal Canadian Legion Poppy Fund.

Ways to Donate:

If you wish to donate on-line, Canada Helps has an option to give to any special collections at Holy Trinity, as well as to the regular collection.

Canada Helps is an easy way to donate to Holy Trinity either once, occasionally, or monthly, using your credit card. (PayPal and Google Pay also accepted.) Canada Helps charges a 3.5% fee for monthly donations; you receive a tax receipt for your full donation. Canada Helps issues your tax receipts so Holy Trinity also benefits by not needing additional admin staff time.

Email transfers directly to Holy Trinity are also available. Contact the office for this option.

If you wish to have Holy Trinity donation envelopes, contact the office.

The theme this year is Embracing Unity:

Many People, One Heart. As we journey in the coming weeks, we encourage you to consider donating to the Appeal to support your community and live grounded in generosity.. If you do not

The Light Shines Through the Broken Places - Clergy Sexual Abuse Prayer Service—Everyone is invited to join Holy Child Parish and Bishop Don for an evening of prayer and participation in the spirit of a relational church on Thursday, November 21 at 7 pm. We are reminded that, although victims are often broken, the light of Christ may shine through their brokenness. The service will encourage us to find the courage to listen deeply and compassionately to those wounded in a place where they should have found love. Pope Francis's call for a church that gets its hands dirty and bends down to heal the wounds and relationships caused by sin will lead to a synodal church. Join us in the hall afterward for fellowship and discussions on how to get our hands dirty.
